

The ABC's of Being a DAC or DELAC Rep!

When parents are involved at school, the performance of all the children at school, not just their own, tends to improve. The more comprehensive and well planned the partnership between school and home, the higher the student achievement.

What is DAC/DELAC?

DAC stands for District Advisory Council

As an elected DAC representative for your school, you will be attending monthly meetings with other DAC parent reps from all Chula Vista Elementary School District schools to advise the District on state and federally funded programs, share this information with other parents at your school site, and promote parent participation and leadership.

DELAC stands for District English Learner Advisory Committee

As an elected DELAC representative for your school, you represent parents of students in our District who are Multilingual English Language Learners. You will also be attending monthly meetings with other DELAC parent reps from all Chula Vista Elementary School District schools to advise the District's Governing Board on English Learner Services and Supports, and share this information with parents at your school site.

How do I Get Started?

School Site Elections

Speak with your school Principal about running for DAC or DELAC representative for the new school year!

Know the Meeting Schedule!

- DAC/DELAC Meetings are held monthly on a Tuesday from 12-2 p.m.!
- Ask your principal for your school's School Site Council and/or ELAC schedules!

What Will I Learn?

You will hear directly from our Superintendent.

You will hear various reports from District Administrators.

DELAC reps will learn and provide input about Multilingual English Learner programs and services.

The DAC/DELAC Executive Board will share reports and information.

What Should I Expect at the Meetings?

District interpreters provide simultaneous translation in Spanish!
